Hi Jude,

So am I. I'm very excited to go there with you and your family and it will be so much fun. But, I don't think that my parents would be able to give me a lift to your house because they'll be away for a medical checkup in the early morning by then. So, I'm wondering if you can pick me up on your way?

That's good that your mom's preparing food to bring there and I'd prefer anything but vegetables. And a barbecue in the beach sounds great.

I think that we'll be able to do a lot of fun activities. We can go swimming, fishing or we can even build a giant sand castle in the beach. Also, we can collect a lot of sea shells there. And I'm looking forward to have a great time with you and your family at the beach.

See you soon,
Grace.
