WritingPart 01 - Question 01

Hi,

It is indeed great that we are going to be working together. And about the topic, I don't think rainforest would be interesting. How about we choose renewable energy as our topic?

I'm so sorry, I don't think I will be able to make time for it as I already have plans for tomorrow. But I'll definitely be able to join you the day after.

I know how it is like to work in a noisy environment. How about we go to the library? We will be able to work peacefully and also we can get more information for our project.

I think we should give our presentation in the afternoon because we would still have some time in the morning to work on it.

Let me know if anything needs to be changed.

Lucy.

Part 02 - Question 03

Jack climbed out of the boat and ran as fast as he could to the beach. He was thankful to be back to where he belonged, where he was familiar, ~~with~~ after experiencing a solitary life on an island in the middle of nowhere in the ocean. He couldn't believe he was back. He was excited to meet his loved ones after a long time. But he couldn't travel to his hometown as all his belongings were lost.

3 So he went to ask people for money so he could return home. Some people ignored him, but many others helped Jack with all their heart. And soon, he found some money, enough for a train ticket to his hometown. He went to the ticket counter and bought a train ticket. And with a heart full of happiness, he looked out of the window as the train was passing by.

And soon, it was his stop. He got off the train and started walking along the road that led him to his village. He walked and walked. He was tired after walking for such a long way, but his mind was sprinkled with happiness as his eyes took hold of a familiar place, his home. He hurried his legs and tapped on the door. A woman opened the door for him, mesmerised by the person who was at the door, she hugged him.
