Life, one hundred years ago was certainly not the best because it 'didn't <sup>have</sup> this much facilities as in the present. People who lived in that era basically survived with little ~~to~~ eat and ~~fit~~ with less facilities to survive.

But, now people ~~to~~ spend more luxurious lives with all the improved facilities and the new technology. Especially, the health sector has <sup>had</sup> a magnificent transformation. One hundred years ago, simple infections were often life threatening. Today, modern medicine, vaccines and advanced surgeries ~~to~~ save lives. Not only that there are medicines for even uncurable illnesses like cancers and etc.

A city situated among scenic hills, Kandy is the cultural heart of Sri Lanka. It provides a perfect blend of rich history, sacred traditions, lush greenery and a variety of local food.

Temple of the sacred tooth relic is Sri Lanka's most worshiped buddhist site. You can visit the temple first thing in the morning before it gets too crowded and then enjoy a peaceful stroll around the scenic Kandy lake. If you want to do shopping, head to the Central Market to buy fresh spices and the famous local tea. In my scenario, you can also visit the museums around the city within just one day and learn about the ever-lasting amazing history of Sri Lanka's last kingdom.

The best way to explore Kandy is by hopping into a local tuk-tuk for short, exciting rides. For a relaxed
