Hi Joe

I have a big favour to ask you. Can I please borrow your history. I have a big exam at university last week. And I need to study but I forgot my ^{ine} when I was in the maths class. So can you come to the ~~town~~ juice store. Then I can get the book and have a delicious drink while going to ~~to~~ too. How about a 100 clock in the morning

Seen you there,

Bivo

One day Mary was waiting for the bus in the bus stand. She was going to an important meeting. She was carrying all the documents and files needed. Then ~~the~~ the bus came. She ~~ex~~ quickly hopped on to the bus, but when she was in such a rush the documents all fell on the ground. John who was walking by noticed all the documents. He picked them up and tried to give it to her. He climbed on the bus that was almost going to set off and gave it to Mary.
