Part I

Life nowadays is easy and convenient, but thinking about life in the past before a 100 years is a whole different story.

First of all the people nowadays have the latest medical knowledge, so if anyone gets a disease they'll have a high chance of recovering. ~~But~~ In the past people were healthy but due to diseases and infections many died.

Second of all ~~in~~ nowadays we have TV's, phones, laptops etc. for entertainment purposes. In the past people didn't have this much technology, so they had stage dramas,

- live concerts and parades to entertain themselves.

The past is better in a way too, since countries like Russia and U.S. didn't have nuclear weapons. People were also creative in composing songs, dramas, games and much more.

In conclusion the life in present is better because we might be able to obliterate many problems with our technology in the future.

Part II

~~In~~ During the holiday months, I once worked as a shop assistant at a supermarket near my house. I had to clean floors, arrange products on shelves, help customers, check prices and keep the shop organized. I worked 4 days a week and gained many experiences. It was wonderful working there.

One of the most valuable skills I have learned was how to communicate efficiently with different people. I also improved my teamwork, time management and many problem solving skills. Some time the entire store became busy and crowded, but I also coped that. This job has made ~~me~~ me more responsible and confident.

~~I would~~ In my opinion, I would ~~so~~ strongly recommend this job to others as this is a great way to develop social skills ~~like~~ and taking responsibilities. This job might be useful as these skills can't be taught in class, ~~students must test themselves~~. Therefore students must experience these life long skills.
