Part 1

Hey,

Of course I want to go cycling with you. I've been also looking forward to going cycling and I've made a to-do list too.

I think cycling around the lake can be really enjoyable as we can enjoy the view and the nature too. Also I think going cycling through the forest by ourselves can be really dangerous too.

Yes, I think it's better if we take some food with us. We can have a picnic beside the river.

Sorry, I have a class to go afterwards. So, I won't be able to come.

See you soon,

Dev

FRIENDS

Most of the people would say that we would have to be in contact with friends everyday to stay as friends. But in my eyes, I see that fact is actually not that important because I think friends don't need to stay in contact everyday. Real ones will always help us and match our vibe even after not meeting them for a whole year.

Also I think that meeting friends face-to-face is more important than just solely relying on virtual chats for building strong, trusting friendships and we can spend a ~~se~~ greater quality time with our friends when meeting physically rather than just chatting.

In conclusion, friendship thrives through effort, not just presence.
