Paper-based answer sheet

Part One Answer
You must write within the grey lines.

Life is better than it was 100 years ago

It is a known fact that human life has surely become objectively better today than it was 100 years ago. While modern society faces challenges like climate changes and digital burnout, global development over the past decades has radically transformed the human experience.

One of the main sides that has been developed over the last century is health and survival. According to the statistics, global life expectancy in 1926 was around 35-40 years while today's life expectancy exceeds 73 years. Also childhood survival has been increased thanks to invention of antibiotics and medicines. At the same time, plague such as polio, smallpox have been eradicated or heavily controlled.

Another side that has become better is entertainment as today's entertainment has become more diverse, accessible and cheaper.

Part One Answer
You must write within the grey lines.

A century ago, experiencing entertainment required physical presence or significant financial expenses whereas today, the world's entire library of art, music and media is available instantly from anywhere in the whole world.

Entertainment 100 years ago consisted of silent, black and white films while today, we have high definition, 3D and VR experiences. Also another media that has been invented is interactive gaming. Modern gaming is capable of delivering cinematic experiences and global connectivity.

In my point of view, I think even the humans have become more advanced, intelligent and effective both biologically and in the real world. As science has evolved drastically over the years the whole world has become more advanced and smart.

Exploring a city and actually having a good experience only in just one day can be a really hard thing to do anywhere else in the world but it is really easy when cities like Kandy exist.

As Kandy is a city of historical value but filled with modernity at the same time, a visitor can obtain both fun and knowledge at the same time. Kandy is filled with digital arcades, shooting ranges that a visitor can use to get an excellent experience.

Also, Kandy offers a variety of cultural experiences. At the same time, as all the historical places and botanical gardens are close to each other, a visitor can easily complete enjoying a vibrant experience in Kandy.

A visitor can watch vibrant Kandyan cultural dances and tour royal botanical gardens. Also, they can visit the Temple of Sacred

Part Two Answer

Tooth Relic and the World Buddhist Museum for a deep dive in Sri Lankan heritage. Also, they can enjoy bird watching and easy jungle trekking right behind the Temple of the Tooth.

Visitors can tour Kandy via private guided tuk-tuks for flexibility, walking tours to fully experience the whole city or hired cars for day trips to other temples and mountains.

In my point of view, Kandy is one of the best cities in the whole world to have the best experience in just one day.
