Question 01

Hi,

Thanks for your email, I think the rainforest is an interesting topic but how about we do something more unique like renewable energy?

Sorry, I'm busy tomorrow the whole day but I'm free the next day. So, how about we start after tomorrow?

Sorry to hear your house is noisy. How about we meet at the library? It's usually quiet and has everything we need.

As for the presentation, I think the morning would be better because we'll be more focused and fresh.

Let me know if the topic and place work for you.

See you soon,

Dev

Question 3 Part 2

Jack climbed out of the boat and ran as fast as he could to the beach. Water was still shaking and making waves behind him. As soon as he set foot on the beach something dragged him back to the sea water. It was then Jack saw how much big the shark really was. Jack fought for his life kicking the head of the shark with all his might. Then, he remembered about the knife in his pocket. He quickly grabbed it and started stabbing the shark's eyes with it. Yet, the shark didn't let go his leg. Then he stabbed the shark's head with both of his hands and finally shark let go. Jack was barely able to swim but he somehow managed to go back to the beach. When he look back, he could see a shark's body floating on water. He was terrified but happy at the same time about the fact he was able to survive.
