Writing Part 9

Exam advice

Underline what you must include in your answer. When you've finished, check that you have included the three points in your writing.

- 1 Read this exam task. Underline the questions.

From:	Sam
To:	Sarah

It's great you are free and you can see me in town on Saturday. Where can we meet? What time shall we meet? What would you like to do?

- 2 Look at Sarah's email and answer the questions.

From:	Sarah
To:	Sam

Hi Sam,
 I can meet you near the new shopping centre, at one o'clock. We can go shopping, and then we can go to the cinema.
 See you soon!
 Best wishes,
 Sarah

- How does Sarah begin her email to Sam?
 .....
- How does Sarah finish her email to Sam?
 .....
- Does she answer all three questions?

| 4 cenkith  |                 | 8 dregan  |

Reading Part 4

Read the article about three teenagers who have unusual homes.

Are the sentences 'Right' (A) or 'Wrong' (B)?

If there is not enough information to answer 'Right' (A) or 'Wrong' (B), choose 'Doesn't say' (C).

Exam advice

The questions are in the same order as the text.

MY HOME

Paula

We live in a big old house in the countryside. My parents love it here, but for me it's more boring than our old city home because there aren't any houses or shops near us. But that also means I can play my music really loudly at the weekends! And it's really beautiful and warm here in summer, but it snows a lot in winter, unfortunately.

Andrew

We moved from a nice city house to this little river boat because my parents are looking for a new house to buy. My school friends think we spend all our time going up and down the river, but usually we stay in one place because we've got friends living on boats near us. I'm always with them at weekends.

Sophie

My family moved up to the mountains years ago, so I don't remember living anywhere else. We can see the whole city from up here, but it usually looks grey and dirty, so I'm glad we don't live there. We know everyone who lives near us now, and there are lots of people my age, so I spend time with them after school.

- 0 Paula's parents like their family home in the countryside more than she does.
 A Right                      B Wrong                      C Doesn't say
- 1 Paula has found there's something good about living far from other people.
A Right                      B Wrong                      C Doesn't say
- 2 Paula always has good weather in the area where she lives.
A Right                      B Wrong                      C Doesn't say
- 3 Sophie's family moved up into the mountains when they sold their home in the city.
A Right                      B Wrong                      C Doesn't say
- 4 Sophie meets friends near her home when her classes have finished.
A Right                      B Wrong                      C Doesn't say
- 5 Andrew lived in a big house before he moved to a river boat with his family.
A Right                      B Wrong                      C Doesn't say
- 6 Andrew's parents often travel along the river in their boat.
A Right                      B Wrong                      C Doesn't say

Grammar

have got

1 Complete the sentences below with the correct form of have got.

Our new flat is great! I (1) have got my own room now – I don't share with my brother any more! I like my room because it (2) a really big window in it. My older brother's room is next door. He (3) a lot of things in his room! There's a comfortable chair, and a big bookshelf, but he (4) a TV. He wants to buy one soon. My parents (5) the biggest bedroom in the flat. In our last home they had a bedroom with a shower, but they (6) one in this place. (7) you your own room in your home?

2 Exam candidates often make mistakes with have got. Add got in the correct places in the sentences.

- I'm selling my old TV because I've <sup>got</sup> a new one.
- I've a football match this afternoon.
- Have you old clothes to wear when you help me in the garden?
- I haven't a computer.
- I've some friends who play in a rock band.
- Sarah has a lot of presents to open on her birthday.
- Have you any money in your bag?

Exam advice

Each answer will come from only one section of the text, so read the questions and sections carefully – there may be information in other sections that looks almost like the answer.

Read the article about three girls who enjoy studying Maths.
Then answer the questions.

I ♥ MATHS

Mandy

Maths is much easier for me now than other subjects like languages, but I found it hard when I started. My older sister really hates Maths, so my parents are pleased that I like it so much. Mr James is my Maths teacher. We all talk about Maths problems together in class and he explains things clearly – and he's really funny, too, so that's why we all like the subject.

Charlotte

I thought Maths was quite easy when I had my first class and I loved trying to find the answers! I study with a really friendly group of girls in my class, so we help each other, and talk together. Mrs Sams, my teacher, sometimes says we're too noisy, but she knows we're working hard! I love Science, too, and I understand it much better now because my Maths has improved.

Tina

My dad teaches Maths at a college, so he's pleased I like it now. He says when I'm older I could study in his classes! So I'm thinking about that. Maths will help me to study Science at a high level, too. But for now I'm just happy when I can do things like help my grandma count her money when we're shopping. My Maths teacher is nice, but I don't know many people in my class. But that means I work hard and don't chat!

- 0 Who liked Maths as soon as she began studying it?

Reading Part 4

Exam advice

Read the article first. Then read the questions carefully and underline the important words in each one. Finally, underline the answers in the article.

Read the article about a young surf life saver. Then answer the questions.

Charlotte Simmonds

Charlotte Simmonds is a 17-year-old student from Sydney in Australia. Charlotte spends most of her free time on the beach because she is also a surf life saver. When she's older, she hopes to work as a life saver in some of the most famous surf beaches in the world, Arugam Bay in Sri Lanka or Pipeline in Hawaii. A surf life saver's job is to save the lives of everybody on the beach or in the water but they don't get any money for this.

Charlotte joined surf life savers with her older brother and sister when she was just five years old. 'We lived near the beach but my parents were very busy in their shop. This club was a great way to meet other children, stay fit and healthy and most importantly we could spend hours on the beach. We learnt to swim and surf at an early age. At the age of 15 I became a surf life saver and soon after that I saved somebody in the sea.'

Charlotte loves looking after people on the beach. 'Everybody can see us on the beach because we wear horrible red and yellow hats, shirts and shorts. If you can't see us that means we can't see you so maybe you aren't safe'.

Unit 1 Track 1

Announcer: Example. Where is Sarah's brother?

Boy: Where's your brother today, Sarah? I usually see him in the school library.

Sarah: Yeah, that's right, but he's got a doctor's appointment today, at two o'clock.

Boy: Oh? But it's only twelve thirty.

Sarah: Really? Oh, I remember now ... he went home to get something to eat first.

Announcer: One. How much were Jon's baseball boots?

Girl: Great baseball boots, Jon!

Jon: Thanks! Grandma gave me thirty-five pounds for my birthday, so dad and I went into town.

Girl: Did you buy your boots at the new sports shop?

Jon: No, they were too expensive – forty-two pounds. We found them in another shop, for twenty-nine pounds. Dad got them for me – as a present!

Announcer: Two. Which one is Peter's cousin?

Girl: Hi, Peter. What are you doing here?

Peter: I'm waiting for my cousin. You met him at my house a few weeks ago. He was dressed in dark clothes.

Girl: Yes, I remember – a tall guy with blond hair. And he had a beard.

Peter: Oh, he hasn't got that any more. Look, here he comes now!

Announcer: Three. Which picture shows Marta's brother and sister?

Boy: Have you got a big family, Marta?

Marta: Quite big. My younger sister and I still live at home with mum and dad.

Boy: And have you got any brothers?

Marta: One older brother. Jerry's twenty and he lives in Paris. He's coming to visit us soon – we're really excited!

Announcer: Four. What do Paula and her friends usually do on Saturdays?

Boy: What do you do on Saturdays, Paula?

Paula: Well, I always spend the day with my friends. We don't often have enough money to go shopping, so we just have to go to someone's house and watch films instead.

Boy: That's cheaper than going to a café or somewhere, isn't it?

Paula: You're right!

Announcer: Five. Which person in Kasia's family has a birthday at the weekend?

Sam: Do you want to go out on Saturday, Kasia?

Kasia: I can't, Sam. My family's having a big party because my baby brother will be two that day!

Sam: Cool!

Kasia: Yes, we're going to have a great time. Even my grandfather is coming. My dad is going to collect him from the airport.

Unit 2 Track 2

Fiona: Where's your new house, Matthew? Near the park?

Matthew: Oh, that was our old house, Fiona. We're across the road from the library now – but far from the river, so we don't go there so often now.

Fiona: But do you like it? The garden in your old house was great.

Matthew: Mmm, this one isn't as good, and our kitchen's smaller, but the living room's really comfortable – it's my favourite place!

Fiona: Have you bought anything for your bedroom?

Matthew: My mum has! I've got a nice new chair now, so I choose something from my bookcase and sit and read. But then I just forget the time – so I need a clock!

Fiona: I'd love to visit. Which street is it?

Matthew: You know Cheston Street? It's the next street – Mayville Road. Walk along King's Avenue and turn left.

Fiona: And is your house easy to find?

Matthew: Yes, it's the only house there that's built of wood. It's got a white wall around it. And if you're lost, just look for our neighbour's red roof!

Fiona: I'll come on Saturday. At quarter past three?

Matthew: Say half past. I'll be back from football at three and first I'll need a snack!

Fiona: OK!

Unit 3 Track 3

Now here's news of a big international event coming to the city soon! It's called the Food Market – and it's all about dishes from all over the world! So put the date in your diaries – the school year ends on the sixteenth of July, and this'll be on the day after, the seventeenth.

And you might remember last year there was an event like this on King's Field. Well, this year it's going to be bigger, so it'll be in Summer Park – that's opposite the shopping centre.

They're expecting lots of people to go and it'll be open from half past two till seven pm. So get there early if you want to try different food from all over the world, like unusual fruit and chocolate. And if you're among the first hundred visitors, you'll get an ice cream – for free!

And there'll also be a cook there making fresh pasta – and you can make some, too! You can also buy some delicious cakes to take home. So, see you there!

Unit 4 Track 4

Girl: Did you go to Weston's department store with your family yesterday, James?

James: Yes, my mum got me the new jeans I wanted.

Girl: Cool! What about your sister? She loves buying bags, doesn't she?

James: Mm – and she's got lots at home! But the shoes she got yesterday look really good with her new party dress. Dad bought her that last week.

Girl: And did he get the T-shirts he wanted?

James: Oh, he still needs those – he had to get a suit for work instead.

Girl: Maybe your mum will buy them for him.

James: Oh, she wanted some shoes for my cousin's little girl, but in the end mum found a great dress for her instead. It's very pretty.

Girl: And did she buy anything for your brother?

James: Well, he asked her for a new watch, but she couldn't find a nice one. He also needed a new shirt, so he bought one.

Girl: And what about your grandma?

James: She got granddad a special bag for when he goes swimming – he can put his watch in it. He'll love it!

Unit 5 Track 5

Announcer: Example. Which sport did Tom miss at school?

Girl: Why weren't you in school yesterday, Tom?

Tom: My mum took me to the doctor's – I hurt my foot playing football.

Girl: Well, we were all waiting for you at volleyball practice.

Tom: Really? My mum left a message with the sports teacher. Anyway, never mind – I'll see him tonight at basketball club.

Announcer: One. How much did Tess pay for her new racket?

Boy: That's a great new racket you've got there, Tess. It looks expensive!

Tess: Oh, not really. Actually the price tag said thirty-five euros, but in the end it was only twenty-nine. We paid less because of my student card.

Boy: That's very cheap. My old racket was forty euros!

Announcer: Two. Where did Sophie stay during her skiing holiday?

Boy: How was your skiing holiday, Sophie?

Sophie: Great, thanks. But our accommodation was a surprise.

Boy: Why?

Sophie: I really wanted to stay in a village, but my parents wanted somewhere quiet. So we were in a small hotel right by a lake. It was nice but quite far to go to the mountain for our skiing.

Announcer: Three. What is Josh making for his friends?

Girl: What are you doing, Josh?

Josh: Well, my friends are hungry, so I'm making food. Mum left us some sandwiches, but now I'm just doing some cakes like mum showed us.

Girl: They look great. Can I have one? I'll eat it with some ice cream.

Josh: Sure.

Announcer: Four. Where is Maria going?
 Boy: Why are you running, Maria?
 Maria: I'm in a hurry! I'm late for swimming practice because I had to take my books back to the library. Anyway, aren't you going to the cinema tonight?
 Boy: I was, but I still haven't finished my homework.

Announcer: Five. What time will Ben's football practice start today?
 Mum: Come on, Ben – what are you doing? You're going to be late for football practice! It's a quarter to five already!
 Ben: Oh, don't worry, Mum – it's at a quarter past five this evening. We're starting a bit later this week.
 Mum: Right – we'll leave at five o'clock then.
 Ben: OK.

Unit 6 Track 6

Mum: How was your first day, Jamie?
 Jamie: Great, Mum. But Mr Hart isn't my class teacher any more. I've got Mr Jackson this year. But Mrs Richards is still my English teacher.
 Mum: Great! And did you get to school at half past eight?
 Jamie: A quarter to nine – the bus was late. I was at the bus stop early – at eight o'clock.
 Mum: Right. So what subjects did you have?
 Jamie: We started with Maths today, followed by Physics and then Biology – that'll be every Monday.
 Mum: Sounds an interesting timetable.
 Jamie: But it's not very easy to remember it all. ... But we get free time for study now, so that'll be easier than last year. I was so busy then.
 Mum: True. Oh, your football boots are here. Did you forget them?
 Jamie: I didn't need them. But I left my lunchbox in the fridge, so I went to the café. Oh, guess what? My teacher loved my holiday homework!
 Mum: So you've had a good day?
 Jamie: Yeah – I saw my old friends. Oh, and I made new friends – that was brilliant! But it's strange having a new classroom.

Unit 7 Track 7

Jon: Hi, Elsa. It's Jon. I'm taking some friends to the cinema for my birthday next week. Would you like to come?
 Girl: I'd love to, thanks! Which day?
 Jon: Well, my birthday's on Wednesday, but I'm going out with my family then, so it'll be on Thursday. Is that OK?
 Girl: Great! Which film are we going to see?
 Jon: An adventure film, called Antikar. That's A-N-T-I-K-A-R.
 Girl: Oh, I've heard it's really good! So which cinema is it? I'll meet you there.
 Jon: It's in South Street. The cinema in Cross Street is nicer, really, but never mind.
 Girl: And what time does it start? Is it the afternoon show, at half past three?
 Jon: We're going later, at quarter to six, and when it finishes at eight o'clock, we'll eat at the pizza place next door.
 Girl: OK, I'll ask my parents to pick me up at the restaurant, then, shall I?
 Jon: Mm, you can't park there, so it'll be easier for them to wait by the library. Why don't you tell them that?
 Girl: Good idea!

Unit 8 Track 8

Girl: Hi, Max! How was your weekend?
 Max: Not very good. I stayed at home all weekend. I was ill.
 Girl: Really? I saw Josh at the football match on Saturday.
 Max: Yes, he loves watching football matches. Did United win the match?
 Girl: Yes, they did. They won 5-2. Josh's brother Matt wasn't there.
 Max: No, Matt was playing tennis. He won his match, too.
 Girl: Cool! I also saw Elisa later. She was in the cinema with her sister.
 Max: In the cinema? I don't understand. It was Gina's party on Saturday and I'm sure Elisa wanted to go to the party.
 Girl: Did Susie go to the party?
 Max: No, she couldn't. It was her mum's birthday so they had dinner in a restaurant.
 Girl: Oh! I hope they had a good time. What about Nick? Did he go to Gina's party?

Max: Nick? I don't think so. He usually goes to his dad's house on Saturday evenings to surf the Internet.

Unit 9 Track 9

Hi, I'm Haylee Brown. Now listen carefully for some interesting news about our new entertainment magazine for young people. It's called What's On? We are the same people who write the weekly newspaper What's On TV? but this new entertainment magazine will be monthly and not weekly. And what about price? Well, our magazine has got a very special price of five pounds seventy-five. That's less than an eight-pound cinema ticket.

And now for the exciting part. We are looking for young people like you to write articles about the things that you are interested in. You can write an article about the films you enjoy, about pop groups you like or perhaps about exhibitions you have seen.

There are some amazing prizes for every article we include in the magazine, for example cinema tickets or CDs but the writer of the best article will win a laptop. If you would like to write for us then send me an email. My email address is haylee@whatson.co.uk, that's H-A-Y-L-double E. So, start writing and we hope to hear from you soon!

Unit 10 Track 10

Announcer: Example. What is Sophie doing now?

Mum: Sophie, where are you? Are you surfing the Internet again?

Sophie: No, Mum! I'm studying for the Maths test.

Mum: No, you aren't. Your Maths book is in the kitchen.

Sophie: OK. I'm listening to music.

Mum: If you're not studying, can you help me in the garden?

Announcer: One. What will the weather be like tomorrow?

Boy: What shall we do tomorrow?

Girl: We can go to the beach if it's sunny.

Boy: But it's going to rain tomorrow.

Girl: Are you sure?

Boy: Yes, I am. Look at those clouds!

Girl: Then, how about going to the Science Museum?

Boy: Good idea.

Announcer: Two. What time does Harriet's party start?

Girl: Are you going to Harriet's party?

Boy: Yes! I can't wait. Shall we meet at half past five?

Girl: No, that's too late. It begins at six o'clock.

Boy: OK. Let's say five pm. Meet me outside the cinema then.

Announcer: Three. How many musicians are there in Matt's group?

Matt: I'm so sorry. I can't come tonight. We've got a concert.

Girl: Really, Matt? Is it still you and your two brothers?

Matt: No, there's four of us now with the new singer. She's got a wonderful voice.

Girl: Good luck!

Announcer: Four. What was Owen wearing yesterday?

Girl: Did you see Owen yesterday?

Boy: Yes, I saw him at the shopping centre. He was wearing a white scarf.

Girl: Was he wearing his hat?

Boy: No, he wasn't and he wasn't wearing his long coat, either.

Unit 11 Track 11

Leo: Hi, Freya, it's Leo.

Freya: Hi, Leo.

Leo: Freya, I need to do some more exercise. Yesterday you were talking about a walking club.

Freya: Oh yes, the walking club. We met last Sunday and we walked to Hunting Lake. It was awesome.

Leo: When's the next trip?

Freya: It's the thirteenth of March.

Leo: Is the thirteenth of March a Sunday?

Freya: Yes, it is.

Leo: Do I have to pay anything?

Freya: Yes, you do. You can pay two pounds fifty per trip. That includes transport. But I pay per year.

Leo: How much does it cost per year?

Freya: It's ten pounds for a whole year. So if you do more than four trips, you'll save money.

Leo: Good idea. Where do you normally meet? At the bus station?

Freya: No, we usually meet at the train station.

Leo: Where do you walk to?

Freya: We go to forests and lakes but you must come next time! We're going to walk across a wild beach.

Leo: Cool! Do I have to book a place?
Freya: Yes. Call Matt Brown on 0122 78 093.
Leo: Thanks Freya. I'll call him later and see you at school tomorrow.

Unit 12 Track 12

Mollie: Hi, Finlay. It's Mollie.
Finlay: Hi, Mollie. How are you?
Mollie: Fine. Look, I'm phoning to ask you about Hong Kong. We're going there next week and I know you lived there.
Finlay: Yes, I did. Well, you'll fly to Hong Kong International Airport. The people who live there call it Chep Lap Kok airport.
Mollie: Really? What transport should we use in Hong Kong? A taxi?
Finlay: You must take a tram. They're over a hundred years old and they've got two floors.
Mollie: Amazing! Are they expensive?
Finlay: No, they're really cheap. A ticket costs about twenty pence for adults and ten pence for children.
Mollie: What should we visit in Hong Kong?
Finlay: Oh, there's a lot to see on the island, for example Ocean Park or the Science Museum but you shouldn't miss the Hong Kong Museum of History. It's my favourite place.
Mollie: What time does it open?
Finlay: I think it opens at ten am but I often went there with my dad on Saturday afternoons about two o'clock.
Mollie: How do we get there?
Finlay: Take a bus to Chatham Road South. That's C-H-A-T-H-A-M.
Mollie: Thanks for your advice Finlay.
Finlay: That's OK and have a great trip!

Unit 13 Track 13

Bob: I'm going to buy some new clothes for snowboarding tomorrow. We're going to the mountains on Saturday.
Kyra: Lucky you! You went snowboarding last Friday, too!
Bob: Yes, I know. I love it.
Kyra: I've never been snowboarding. Is it difficult?
Bob: No, not really. I began skiing when I was five years old and then I learnt to snowboard about two years ago.
Kyra: Is it an expensive hobby?

Bob: Well, good boots cost about a hundred and eighty pounds and a snowboard is about three hundred and fifty pounds. Then, every time you go snowboarding, you have to buy a special ticket for the ski lifts. This costs about forty pounds a day.

Kyra: And do you get very tired?
Bob: Yes, but mainly because the day is very long! We normally leave home at six thirty and drive to the mountain. We get there about eight thirty am. This gives us thirty minutes to get ready before everything opens.
Kyra: Wow! And are you out all day?
Bob: Yes, we are. Why don't you come with us? You'll have an amazing time.
Kyra: Yes, it sounds exciting but I think I might break my leg. I don't think it's a safe hobby.

Unit 14 Track 14

Boy: Hi, Annabelle! What are you reading?
Annabelle: It's a postcard from my uncle. He's a pilot and he often sends me a postcard when he flies to new places.
Boy: Does your aunt go with him?
Annabelle: No, she doesn't and my uncle doesn't send her postcards. She sometimes calls me to ask if my uncle has sent me a new postcard.
Boy: Really? Has your cousin emailed you this week?
Annabelle: No, he never sends emails. He prefers to write his news on his blog.
Boy: Oh? Does your brother have a blog, too?
Annabelle: Yes, but he never writes anything. He often sends messages from his mobile.
Boy: Oh yes, I remember your last birthday. We were writing a letter in our French class when you got a message from your brother. The teacher was really angry.
Annabelle: And my grandmother sent me that birthday card with a funny cartoon.
Boy: You're lucky. My grandmother just sends me a quick note.
Annabelle: That's just like my mum! She never calls anyone but she often leaves notes on the kitchen table.
